STUDIO

Our new studio in Ballard is just a few blocks from the Locks in a recently renovated multi-story brick building. We are now at 3060 NW Market St, Seattle, WA 98107 just on the corner of 32nd. Click here for a Google map and directions. Our ground-floor Market Street entrance is on the north side of the street: look for our white sign near the red front door.

PARKING

There is two hour free parking on the street, but this has recently been changed to only between 11:30 AM and 3 PM. Don't even think about parking there at other times during the day as the parking police are relentless. However, you can often find a space just around the corner on 32nd, and we have always been able to find a space just one block up on 56th. If you are bringing a lot of clothes, let us know so we can assist you in carrying them.
